10. GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

Fees Paid by Credit Card and/or Debit Card

The maximum fee that may be paid by a credit card or debit card transaction is $10,000.

Fees on a single permit that exceed $10,000 may not be paid by credit card or debit card. Multiple permits each with a fee of less than $10,000 may be paid by credit card or debit card individually and separately.

Fees determined by the Executive Director

The Executive Director is authorized to charge fees and charge for services provided, documents produced, permits issued or other action taken that are not referred to in the Schedule. In deciding whether to charge a fee and in determining the amount of fee to be charged the Executive Director must be fair and equitable while attempting to recoup the costs incurred by the Red River Planning District.

Fees waived by the Executive Director

The Executive Director is authorized to waive all or part of:

- (a) an additional fee to non-compliance for work without a building permit, work without a development permit, or failure to obtain permit or approval where the Executive Director is satisfied that the applicant acted reasonably in the circumstances; and any fee where the Director is satisfied that the imposition of the fee would be unfair in the circumstances.

Increased fees refunded by the Executive Director

The Executive Director is authorized to refund an amount equal to the increase in the fee to the applicant where:

- (a) a new fee is imposed a permit fee higher than the regular fee is imposed, or an amendment to the fee schedule results in an increased permit fee; and
- (b) the Executive Director is satisfied that, prior to notice being provided to the construction industry of the date that the increased permit fees would come into effect, an applicant was bound to a contract predicated on payment of the lower fee for the permit.
